INTRODUCTION

Situation

You are a member of a student group which is planning a campaign to increase local awareness of crime. As preparation for the campaign, the group leader has asked you to attend a seminar in which two police inspectors will give advice about how to protect yourself and your property against criminals.

The seminar is divided into two parts. In the first part the police inspectors will talk about 'scammers' or confidence tricksters, and in the second part there will be a question-and-answer session on other crime-related issues. The group leader has asked you to take careful notes on both parts so that you can report back to him.

Part 1

In this part, you will hear two police inspectors talking about confidence tricksters.

You will have 5 minutes to familiarize yourself with the note-headings for Part 1 before the interview begins.

At the end of Part 1 you will have 5 minutes to tidy up your answers.

Part 2

In this part, you will hear a question-and-answer session.

You will have 3 minutes to familiarize yourself with the note headings for Part 2 before the session begins.

At the end of Part 2, you will have 10 minutes to tidy up your answers.
