2. Learning English through Poems and Songs

You have just heard this song about opportunities.

Look
If you had
One shot
Or one opportunity
To seize everything you ever wanted
In one moment
Would you capture it
Or just let it slip?

You have been inspired to share your feelings about opportunities on your online blog. In your blog write about one opportunity that you missed and one opportunity that you took.

3. Learning English through Short Stories

You are entering a short story competition on the topic of 'Wildlife'. Your story should describe the events leading up to the image below.

Write your story.

4. Learning English through Drama

'Did my heart love till now? ... For I never saw true beauty till this night.'

Romeo and Juliet - Shakespeare

In your drama lessons you have been looking at plays about romantic love. Your essay assignment from your drama teacher is to answer the question: Is Romantic Love Necessary for a Happy Marriage?

Write your essay.

Mahjong

7. Learning English through Social Issues

You are working on a project entitled 'Hong Kong's NEETs'. NEETs are young people who are not in education, employment or training. Many of these young people spend their time at home playing video games or surfing the Internet.

Write a report to explain why the number of NEETs in Hong Kong is rising and suggest what can be done to help these youths. Give reasons to support your suggestions.

8. Learning English through Sports Communication

Unlike swimmers or basketball players, dancers are not traditionally thought of as athletes. As a member of your school's dance team you have been asked to write an article for your school magazine. Use the title and headings below to support the idea of dancers as athletes.

It has recently been claimed that in the workplace many Hong Kong fresh university graduates are less hard-working and less willing to face challenges compared to those in the past.
